

TRADUZIONE

Minister Matteo SALVINI was born in Milan on 9th March, 1973.

He graduated in Humanities at Milan's Manzoni Lyceum. He is a professional journalist.

A member of Lega (the League) since 1990, he has been Federal Secretary of the Party since December 2013, after having held a number of political and institutional roles, starting with that of city councilor in Milan, where he was elected for the first time in 1993.

Elected to the Chamber of Deputies (Lower House) in 2008, he opted the following year for the role of Member of the European Parliament, a position to which he was elected again in 2014.

Senator of the Republic since March 2018, he was appointed Minister of the Interior and Vice-President of the Council of Ministers (i.e. Deputy Prime Minister) on 1st June, 2018.